

Opening a mobile food establishment?

Follow these easy steps to navigate the process of application and approval for your mobile food establishment permit

Step 1: Gather and Complete Paperwork

- ☐ Mobile Food Service Application
- ☐ Commissary Application
- ☐ Location Agreement Application
- ☐ Mobile floor plan, drawn to scale
- ☐ Pictures, interior and exterior (include existing mobile #)
- ☐ Menu
- ☐ Specifications for all food service equipment
- ☐ Written handwashing policy
- ☐ Written illness policy
- ☐ Proof of Labor & Industries Certification
- ☐ Written confirmation of closure from previous owner

Step 2: Pay Fees

A mobile plan review fee must be paid when you are ready to submit paperwork. Fees vary based on mobile classification.

Step 3: Contact your Assigned Inspector

You will be assigned an inspector based on your chosen location or commissary.

Your inspector will be _____

Once your paperwork is filed, contact your inspector to discuss any missing items or questions they may have. After an initial review, the inspector will contact you to review your menu, processes, and procedures in detail.

Step 4: Wait for Approval

A full review of your plans will take 2-3 weeks. Your inspector will notify you when final approval is granted.

Step 5: Construction and Final Inspection

Construction of, or changes to the mobile unit may begin once plan approval is granted. Do not begin construction of the mobile unit until you receive plan approval.

Final Inspection of the mobile is required. Contact your inspector at least one week before your proposed opening date to schedule a final inspection. Once approval is granted, a permit fee must be paid before opening.
